CHARLES-TOWN, JULY 27, 1765.

From the SOUTH-CAROLINA and AMERICAN GENERAL GAZETTE, No. 850. Date July 24th, 1765.

"THE General Assembly of the Massachusetts-Bay "in New-England have desired all the provin- "cial Assemblies on the Continent to send Depu- "ties to a Meeting of Congress to be holden in "New-York in October next, in order to take "under Consideration the most proper means of "obtaining Redress of what they call Grievances "arising from some late Acts of Parliament, by presenting humble Remonstrances."

The foregoing Paragraph, Mr. Timothy, is what Mr. Robert Wells has thought proper to lay before the Public, in his usual way.

Now, as there is not a Syllable about "what they call Grievances," in the very cautious and modest Proposal he hints at from the General Assembly of the Massachusetts-Bay, you will oblige all Lovers of plain simple Truth, free from artful Additions or Insinuations, by laying the following (which is so) before your Readers.

"The House of Representatives of Massachusetts Bay have unanimously agreed to propose a Meeting, as soon as may be, of the "Committees from the Houses of Representatives of the several British "Colonies on this Continent, to consult together on the present Circumstances of the Colonies, and the DIFFICULTIES to which "they are, and must be, reduced, by the Operation of the Acts of "Parliament for laying Duties and Taxes on the Colonies; and to consider of a general and united, dutiful, loyal and humble Representation "of their Condition to his Majesty and the Parliament; and to implore Relief."

Letters have accordingly been sent to the Speakers of the several Assemblies on this Continent, wherein the Meeting is proposed to be at New-York, on the first Tuesday in October next.

CHARLES-TOWN, JULY 27, 1765.

THERE are advices from Havana of the 11th inſtant, (which we hear came in the veſſel that brought over John Stuart, Eſq; ſuperintendent, &c. from Pentacola) that the new governor of Cuba, Don Diego Antonio Mafrique was juſt arrived there from Spain; that the Count de Ricla was on his departure, and General O'Reily gone; and that with the new governor arrived an old regiment, to be ſent from thence to take poſſeſſion of Louiſiana, under the command of Don Antonio d'Ulloa.

By a letter from a magiſtrate in Amelia township, we are informed, that on the 2d inſtant, between the hours of 8 and 10 at night, two men came to the houſe of one Richard Baldrick, inn keeper on the Congaree road, and called for ſome toddy and victuals; that in order to pay for what they had, they produced a piece of gold, which they ſaid was £. 8, 5 s.—that Baldrick, ſcrupling its value, went to weigh it, but while he was doing it, one of the men knock'd him down, bound and blindfolded him, as they alſo did his wife, juſt ready to lie in, one Mrs. Kelly, who was there to attend her, and his little ſon; that before they had blindfolded the boy, four or five men more ruſhed into the houſe, who put a knife to Baldrick's throat, ſwearing they would cut it, if he did not immediately diſcover where his money lay, which they ſaid was £. 500; that his wife, terrified at the demand and threat, told the villains, what money her huſband had was in a ſmall trunk in the next room, upon which they went thither, and then ſtript the houſe of every thing that was valuable.—The letter adds, that a hue and cry had been iſſued, and a reward of one hundred pounds offered by Meſſrs. Caldwell and Sabb, to whoever ſhould take one or more of the villains, to be paid on conviction, but nothing had been heard of them ſince; and that robberies, ſome even attended with murders, have been frequent in the back ſettlements lately.

BENJAMIN D
JAMES POYAS

RAN away from t the 13th inſtant, a ſtout, able, well-made negro man, about five feet eight inches high, with a ſurly down look; was formerly the property of Mr. Deas, and lately of the Rev. Mr. Wilton, when he was well known about town (as a porter) by the name of LEITH, but is now called SCIPIO: While the property of Mr. Deas, he ran away and called himſelf Iſaac, but was taken and confined in Savannah Jail half a year. He had on when he went away a blue cloth jacket, faced and collar'd with red; but carried off a new purple mixed cloth waiſtcoat, trimmed with gold vellum button-holes, and gilt buttons, a pair of old leather breeches, and a pair of black, ſo that it is probable he may change his dreſs. As he may change his name, and (pretending to be free) attempt to get off the province, all maſters of veſſels and others are hereby forwarned againſt carrying away; as are all other perſons whoſoever, againſt harbouring or employing him, on pain of being proſecuted with the utmoſt rigour.—Whoever takes up and delivers him to the warden of the work-houſe, or to me in Charles-Town, ſhall have a reward of Twenty Pounds. ARTHUR NEIL.

The ſaid run away has been twice taken ſince his elopement, once at a dance up the Path, and ſince at ſome ferry near Combahee, and made his eſcape: He had on each time the mixed cloth waiſtcoat. 'Tis ſuſpected that he is gone towards Georgia.

RAN away, July 15, 1765, from the ſubſcriber's plantation on Wanco, a tall likely (yet down looking) negro fellow, named GEORGE; has loſt his upper fore-teeth, was born in St. Kitt's, and ſpeaks very good Engliſh; had on when he went away an old blue jacket, and a pair of light blue colour'd breeches; and carried with him a canow about fifteen feet long, four feet wide, ſplit on one ſide, with a ſhort chain, and no ſtem-head.

As this fellow had run away lately, pretended to be a free man, and on his way to Georgia was intercepted by captain Miles, at Ponpon, 'tis probable he will endeavour to get off the province; all maſters of veſſels, &c. are therefore forwarned not to carry him off.

Whoever delivers him to the warden of the work-houſe, or to me in Charles-Town, ſhall have THREE POUNDS reward.

JOHN ROSE.
